

梅花功 Plum Blossom Gong

This advanced level of the Dayan System, opens up the five major points, which are the Qihai 氣海, Zhongwan 中脘, Shanzhong 壇中, Tiantu 天突 and Sky Eye 天目. These points help us to create the Da Zhou Tian (Macrocosmic Orbit) 大周天. When this has formed then all the channels and acupuncture points are open and the Original Qi 原氣 has developed. The Original Qi is the Qi that comes from our parents, before we are born when we are still growing inside our mother's womb. Plum Blossom Gong is also good for the joints and tendons and helps us to open the Sky Eye. Regular practise can help to heal a lot of illness and prevent disease.
